VOLUME NUMBER 95 | CAMERON, MILAM COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, May 13, 1954 | NUMBER 5

Another Registration Date Is Set For Pre-School Children

Registration of pre-school children, who will be six prior to the beginning of school next September, was not successful according to Wiley Loughmiller principal of the elementary school.

Only 78 children were registered and 42 names listed on the census taken earlier did not appear on the registration lists.

Mr. Loughmiller explained that it is very necessary for all parents to register their children if they are to start to school here next year since all books are requisitioned and supplies purchased on the actual number listed.

He said that another registration date has been set for Friday, May 14 from 2:30 until 3:45 p.m. and all of those who did not register their children in the last registration period are urged to be present.

It is preferable, although not compulsory, that parents bring the childs birth certificate and record of vaccination from their doctors. This material will have to be presented before the child will be eligible to enter school in September.

Loughmiller further explained that those registering during the designated times will naturally have a priority on textbooks and supplies, and those not registered may have to wait as long as two weeks for books, since even an emergency book requisition takes that long to be shipped and received.

It is doubly necessary that all the children be registered this year since it must be known by school authorities about how many desks will be necessary and enough teachers hired so that each child can have personal attention.

Milam County Crops Soaked This Week With 1.75 Inches Rainfall

Farmers, ranchers and business men alike, all smiled this week when heavy showers dumped 1.75 inches of rain in the local area. The thunder storms let out .21 inches Monday, 1.30 inches up until about 7 p. m. Tuesday and from that time until about 9 a. m. Wednesday, the Cameron water plant reported that .24 had fallen to boost the total to 1.75. The total for 1954 now stands at 6.83.

The moisture increased prospects for area farmers and ranchers who were greatly in need of the water. The rains are coming just in time to help the summer crops the most.

The warning for possible tornadoes was out Tuesday, but luckily, none were reported. A number of highway deaths have been reported in the state due to the week's weather conditions. Many of the Panhandle communities which have been in the drought area, received good downpours.

Farmers Urged To Plant Castor Beans This Year

Castor bean seeds are still available at the local Production Marketing Association office, and planting now after the recent rains should be successful, according to authorities.

Local office personnel urged that all farmers with available acreage plant the beans since the yield will probably be good this year.

Thus far 400 acres have been signed up, and local PMA officials reported that it is hoped that at least 1000 acres will be planted.

The new type bean available this year can be combined and will not involve the manual labor necessitated by last years type bean.

Combines will be made available to all of those desiring one at harvest time.

Disaster Advisory Committee of Red Cross To Meet Here

Disaster cases registered with the Red Cross will be cited and surveyed by the Disaster Advisory Committee during the later part of this week to decide whether any or all should receive direct financial assistance.

Jack Prescott, local attorney who is head of this committee, said that approximately 15 persons applied for relief from the towns of Gause, Minerva and Salty, the areas most seriously damaged by last weeks winds.

He added that shelter, food and all necessities are being supplied families needing assistance, and this, of course, will be continued even though finincial aid might not be deemed necessary.

Henry Anthis of Milano was a business visitor in the city Saturda ymorning.

All Is Ready For Local Golf Tourney Sunday

Country Club greens are at their greenest, the courses are at their smoothest, giving the impression of just having been combed and brushed, even the traps have an air of waiting . . . all is in readiness for the Cameron Golf Tournament slated for this coming Sunday.

Playing will begin early in the morning and proceed through four flights and until play is completed.

At noon a barbecue dinner, complete with all the trimmings will be served to participants and spectators alike. Golfers entry fee of $3.50 will be all inclusive of the days events, and non-golfers will be served for the minimum charge of $1.50.

Registration will be at booths set up on the lawn Sunday morning and golf equipment will be awarded to the days winners.

There will be players from Waco, Marlin, Temple, Austin, Bryan, San Marcos, Hearne, Corsicana and other Central Texas towns present at the tourney.

Dr. C .G. Swift and William Wallace are handling the preliminary arrangements, with Ed Manning and Jack Prescott as co-chairman of the tournament itself.

All amateurs wishing to compete, have been invited to attend the tournament.

Funeral services were scheduled for 3 p.m. Saturday, May 8 at the Chapel of Green Funeral Home with Rev. A. F. Russell, pastor, First Baptist Church, officiating Burial in Oak Hill Cemetery.

A team of scientists from the Naval Research Laboratory is planning a trip to Sweden to observe the total solar eclipse of June 30, 1954.

H. Pruett Announces For Second Term To Superintendent Post

To The People Of Milam County

It is with a deep sense of gratitude that I offer you my continued services as County Superintendent of Schools. You have been more than kind to me already and I know no words that could adequately express my appreciation to you.

I appreciate the fact that I do not have an opponent and that it was through your kindness that I am allowed to seek a second term unopposed.

I have tried at all times to render you the kind of service to which you were entitled. No citizen, be he great or small, has ever asked this office for service that did not get the very best which we were capable of rendering.

We have always felt that the County Superintendent's Office should be the educational center of the County, and as such, has a vital role to play in the education of our more than five thousand children who go to school in this County. You will be the judge of how well we have carried out this opportunity for service to all people.

Much has been accomplished in Milam County educationally, yet much remains to be done. With the fine co-operation we have had in the past term and feeling that the same spirit will prevail again, we look very hopefully to the future.

Every moment of each day has been a pleasure to serve you and I feel that much better days are ahead for the boys and girls of Milam County.

If my endeavors have met with your approval I humbly ask for your vote in the coming election.

Sincerely,
Hinton H. Pruett
County Superintendent
Milam County

Public Interest In Library Slowly Dies

It has been estimated by Reverend Jim McKeown, representative of the city library board in the initial organization of the new city library, that if work on the library cotninues at its present pace completion should be sometime within the next four to six years!

In elaborating on his statement he explained that interest is gradually diminishing and only one or two volunteer workers are showing up daily to assist in the catalogueing.

He pleaded that all those already familiar with the work on the books devote more time to the project so that the library can be finished and opened by the end of school, the later part of May.

The key is being left with Mrs. Jim Miller, who lives two doors down from the library, and may be had upon request.

He asked that any new workers who wish to spend some time helping to make the library ready for the public to contact him and he will advise them of a time to be present at the building when other workers will be there.

Times And Stations Set For X-Ray Unit Visits

Prizes To Be Awraded; Goal is 7,000 Persons

Anyone that is concerned about their health and or the possible loss of health in one of their family will make certain that they attend one of the Tuberculosis X-ray machine stations to be located somewhere in the County during the month of May.

X-rays, which require less than one minute to make a picture of a person fully clothed, will be made free of charge. The goal this year has been set at 7,000 persons so that a possible onslaught of the contagious disease might be avoided.

Locations throughout the county and the days pictures will be made are: Thorndale on May 18 in the Barnes Building; Cameron on May 20, 21 and 22 in the Hefley-Stedman Show room; in Rockdale on May 27 and 28 in the Gaither Motor Company Show Room and at the Zalesky Hardware building in Buckholts on May 25.

Time, at each location, will be from 8:30 until 5:30 p.m.

Up until this year this area has had the lowest percentage of any county in the state turn out for the x-rays planned for the publics advantage. Out of a population of 24,000 only 5,392, or approximately 27 per cent of the people were x-rayed. Out of this number 122 tuberculor cases were reported, and the victims are now being treated by their doctor or have been brought back to good health again by this time.

Doctors emphasize the fact that if TB is caught in the early stages it can be quickly cured, particularly in this day and age of wonder drugs and medical knowledge.

Hinton Pruett, County Superintendent who is county chairman of this program sponsored by the county health unit, reminded the public that this is not a charity program, it is paid for by the publics tax money and everyone should take advantage of the x-rays.

A written report will be made to each individual, and even though you had the x-rays made last year it does not mean you should neglect it this year. A constant guard and yearly examination must be made to avoid tuberculosis.

As an added reward a number of the business people throughout the area have donated a number of gifts which will be presented to anyone being x-rayed on a lucky number. The numbers will be designated in advance and no partiality will be shown.

Each year since 1947 the number of persons present at the x-ray stations to have pictures made have increase, Mr. Pruett pleaded that everyone participate this year so that Milam County, instead of having the lowest number x-rayed can record the largest number of eligible population participating than any other county in Texas.

Yoe Musicians Take Eight First Ratings At Contest

"A musical performance; played with understanding and feeling," was one of the many comments made by the judges on the Yoe High School Band at the Region III Band Contest held at Waco, Friday and Saturday, May 7 and 8.

The Cameron musicians came out with eight first division ratings and four second division ratings.

The band was judged by Weldon Covington, instrumental supervisor of the Austin city schools; Frank Phillins, director of the McCallum High School band, of Austin and Dr. Ralph R. Guenther, professor of instrumental music at Texas Christian University, Fort Worth.

The Yoe band, under the baton of Francis Cox, copped a first division rating in both concert playing and sight reading.

Also taking a first division rating at the contest were the following ensembles and solos:

Flute quartet, (Kay Cox, Rita Reid, Nita Nabours and Jimmye Rae Colburn)

French Horn quartet, (Anne Hinyard, Erin Kruse, Joyce Wallace and Franklin Moore)

David McLain, Trombone solo; Billie Nell Johnson, baritone solo; Wayne Fisher, Tuba solo; and Kay Cox, piano solo.

Taking a second division rating were:

Clarinet quartet, (Nancy Lawrence, Carol Ann Sanders, Betsy Vogelsang, and Wilma Baldridge).

Flute trio, (Nan Hubert, Martha Collins and Jane Henderson)

Clarinet trio, (Sharon Cammer, Carol Matula, and Annette Manning)

Cornet trio, Emory Camp, Jean Bradbury and Nancy Grabein.

One judge remarked in speaking of the band, "You are to be highly congratulated on the fine teaching you are receiving and the superior results you are achieving through your efforts. It is an honor and a pleasure to judge this organization."

This one of many typical comments, given out by the judges following the Cameron aggregations performance. Other comments, taken directly from the judges' official comment sheets were, "A very fine organization; again I know how much work the director must have done with this group." "-band plays very musically and with a fine tone color and quality."

The Yoe high school band Saturday up held the old tradition of winning a first division rating in both concert playing and sight reading—something the Yoe band is always known to take. Much work, study and hard practice was undertaken first with the results of the first place rating. Much credit is due to the director, Mr. Cox and the students for an outstanding job, performed well.

LITTLE RIVER PHILOSOPHER COMES OUT WITH PREPOSTEROUS SOLUTION FOR ENDING THE WATER PROBLEM

Editor's note: The Little River Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Little River is proposing one of the most unworkable plans we've ever heard of, as you'll see from reading his letter this week.

Dear editar:

I have been noticing in nearly every newspaper that turns up out here on my Johnson grass farm where nearly every candidate, regardless of the office, has come out forthrightly for more water for Texas.

One candidate I know bitterly accuses his opponent of having done nothing about the drouth.

"Here we've had a drouth for five years and he hasn't done a thing about it except talk," the candidate said.

While up to now I didn't know there was anything else you could do about it except talk, in fact, a drouth has always sorta struck me as sort of like a depression, all any politician has ever figured out to do about it is deplore it, I am glad to find out more candidates are incorporating the water situtation in their platforms. It's a healthy sign. It ain't that they can do anything about it, it's just that when a man's miserable he likes to have sympathy, and a politician who hasn't learned to find out what the people are disturbed about and come out against it, hasn't learned the first lesson in vote-getting.

I notice some of the politicians are pointing out that the main trouble with the water situation in Texas is that we don't keep enough of the water that falls on the state, most of it runs off into the ocean, and lots of people are proposing we build more dams, and I'm in favor of it, although I'll admit that if there were fifty dams in all directions from my place, each one backing up a thousand acres of water and still it didn't rain on my farm and I didn't own any of that lake water, I'd be just as dry in a drouth as I ever was

I haven't seen the plant yet that could survive just on whiffs of water blown in from a lake five miles away.

If you ask me, I think the politicians are failing to get at the bottom of the problem.

The reason we don't have enough water in Texas is that all the streams in the state run the wrong way.

You picture a situation where when it rains all the water would head out on the land instead of down the creek to the ocean, and you'll begin to see the light. There's where our troubel is.

If the Texas Legislature will successfully attack this problem from this angle, we may start getting somewhere, but until the situation is remedied and the earth is tilted so all the streams will start emptying water upstream instead of down, we're gonna have a drouth ever time it goes three months without a ran.

Your faithfully.

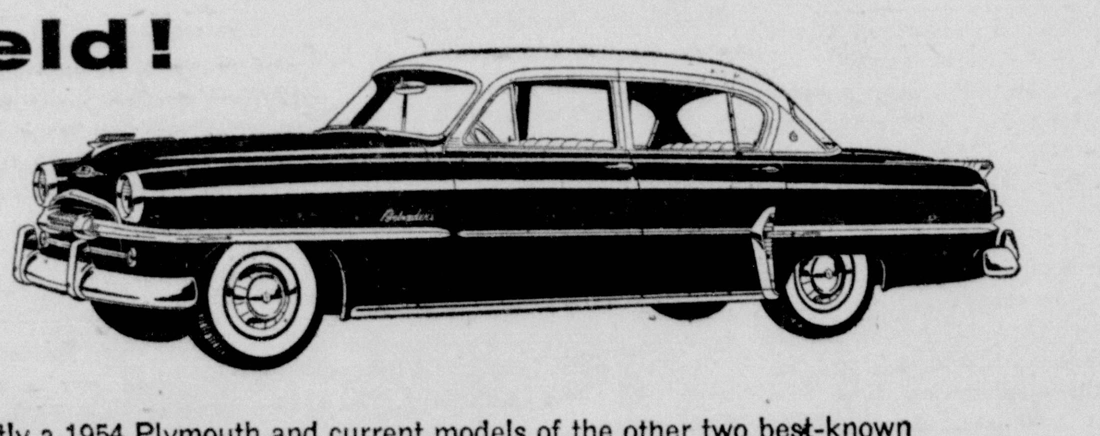
Plymouth

is your "best buy" in the lowest-price field!



Recently a 1954 Plymouth and current models of the other two best-known low-price cars were taken apart by Plymouth engineers and compared, part by part. Standard "stock" models were used. We've listed some typical findings below.

Plymouth is "best buy" in many ways. Here are just a few!

Front Wheel Brakes
Plymouth engineers provide two hydraulic brake cylinders in each front wheel to ensure smooth stops without "grabbing." The other two low-price cars have only one.

Seat Springs
Plymouth uses coil seat springs, for longer lasting support. The "other two" have a zigzag platform type. Also, Plymouth's "springs-on-springs" design adds more comfort.

Piston Rings
Plymouth has four rings on each piston; the "other two" have three. Result: decreased carbon deposit, more consistent power output. Increased oil economy, too!

Micronic Oil Filter
Standard on most Plymouth models. Keeps abrasive dirt out of the engine, reducing wear and achieving greater oil economy. Extra cost on the other two low-price cars.

And dozens of other part-by-part comparisons prove Plymouth is your "best buy"! See us today . . . and get the facts!

Ask us for the big illustrated booklet that shows how Plymouth leads in frame construction . . . engine design . . . performance . . . economy . . . comfort . . . safety.

Agricultural Class Observes Soil Saving Methods

Edwin Fischer

R. B. McDonald and Wayne Mann of the local Soil Conservation Service office met with Roy Hensley and his Veterans Agricultural Class on Steve Polzer's farm to look at a complete and coordinated soil and water conservation program at work.

The farm tour was started at the house where Hensley explained how the place looked before the conservation work was started. Then McDonald explained the two main soil types showing the problems and limitations of each type.

As the group walked over each field, the conservation needs of the field were discussed It was pointed out that Polzer had either already applied these needs or his plan called for them to be applied in the near future.

The tour closed at a high place where the group could see the entire farm. Soil Conservation Service personnel pointed out the different practices such as contour farming, cover cropping, crop residue management, farm waterways, terraces, brush eradication, pasture seeding, stock ponds and pasture management, and how these practices worked together to do a complete job of soil and water conservation.

When Polzer was asked about the cost of applying all of these conservation practices his reply was, "It just takes a lot of work, but as far as the cost, it did not cost—it paid."

Ideal Hatchery Receives Top Honors At A & M Poultry Show

Top honors were awarded again this year, for the fifth consecutive time, to the Ideal Hatchery and Poultry Farm of Cameron for their chicks and eggs entered in the Texas Chick, Poult and Egg Show at Texas A & M College on May 8.

Most cherished of the trophies awarded the local hatchery at the show which is sponsored by the Poultry Science Club was the Grand Champion cup, awarded to the concern compiling the most points during the judging.

The trophy for the best chicks was presented to them for their 25 white Leghorns entered and the trophy for the best eggs was for one dozen brown eggs, disproving the old theory that white eggs are necessarily best.

They also received a rosette for their reserve champion pen of chicks, 25 white leghorns.

In this annual show the exhibitors competed with some of the very best chicks, poults and eggs produced by top poultrymen in this nation. Chicks were judged by points. Vigor constituted 25 points, condition 25 points, weight of entry 10 points, uniformity of weight 10 points, uniformity of color 10 points, trueness to variety color 10 points and ability to feather rapidly 10 points.

Points on eggs were as follows: Size weight, 8 points; uniformity of weight 8 points; uniformity of shape 8 points; uniformity of color 8 points; shell texture 8 points; condition of shell 12 points and interior quality 48 points.

Ideal entries in the show were three entries of white leghorn chicks, all rated blue ribbons which meant that they rated from 90 to 100 points; two entries of New Hampshire chicks which rated red ribbons or the equivalent of from 83 to 89 points; three entries of one dozen white eggs each, rate blue ribbons and two entries of one dozen brown eggs each also rated blue ribbons.

The Fuchs son Alton has also elected to become a member of the poultry profession. He is a senior student at A & M College this year and is president of the Poultry Science Club. Their son Monroe, a sophomore at A & M is the reporter for the group.

Local FFA And 4-H Boys Enter Poultry Show

This year, for the first time, a new division for FFA and 4-H boys was added at the Texas Chick, Poult and Egg Show at A & M College on May 8, sponsored by the Poultry Science Club of the College.

The division consisted of only chick and egg entries. Each boy was eligible to enter on the same basis as those in the open division. There was no champion or grand champion in these divisions. Instead, five blue ribbons will be awarded to the as yet unannounced top five entries of each class. The boys owning these entries will be eligible for two $200 scholarships to major in poultry husbandry at Texas A & M. One scholarship will be awarded in each division.

Final selection of winners will be made on the basis of scholastic ability, interest in agriculture and present activities in high school.

The following boys from the Cameron vicinity qualifying for these awards were Theodore Fuchs, of the Cameron FFA organization, who was graded 95 and three fourths for his pen of 25 white legorn chicks; Carroll Wayne Jungmann, Milam County 4-H of Buckholts who was graded 92 for his 25 white leghorns; Joel Rex McClaren of Cameron who is a member of the Milam County 4-H club was graded 89 and one half for his 25 white leghorn chicks; Carroll ard Jungmann of Buckholts who is a member of the Milam County 4-H club for his one dozen white eggs was graded 91 and one half.

Winners will be announced after May 19 by the Poultry Science Club, where local A & M Senior Alton Fuchs is president.

J. W. Moore, County Agent, said that although local boys might not win awards this first year it is still good training for the boys since it stressed interior quality of eggs.

E&R Church To Hold Soil Stewardship Service Sunday

Thousands of ministers of all denominations throughout the South and Southwest are making plans to take part in the observance of Soil Stewardship on Sunday, May 16. Reverend Albert A. Petrich, pastor of the United Evangelical and Reformed Church at Ben Arnold, extends a cordial invitation to members and to friends of his church to be present at the 10:30 o'clock service next Sunday to hear his sermon which will be in keeping with the occasion

The setting aside of one Sunday each year as a special day for remembering our God-given responsibility as stewards of the soil was first observed in many sections of the South eight years ago. This observance was initiated by Farm and Ranch magazine as a public service, in cooperation with local ministers, soil conservation district supervisors and others.

During the past eight years the observance of Soil Stewardship Sunday has spread to all sections of the South, and to many other parts of the nation. Sunday has been designated as the Sunday when many pastors will devote at least one sermon to the relation of our soils to the people and the church.

Through work of the Soil Conservation Service and others, hundreds of thousands of acres of worn-out farm land have been reclaimed and brought back into profitable production. Good soils product good crops, and these make for prosperous and healthy people. It is the duty of all to encourage the protection and the continual rebuilding of our great soil heritage. Much of our future as a nation depends upon how the soil is handled. Food crops are produced on fertile soils are not only larger and more profitable, but also they are richer in some elements of nutrition.

And especially on this day should everyone attend their church and give thanks to Him for the land they live on and the good which has derived from it.

Good Results From ACP Reported

Farmers participating in the 1954 Agricultural Conservation Program are reporting good results from practices started this year according to authorities at the ACP office.

As in past years, farmers are eligible to request cost-share assistance for carrying out needed soil and water conservation practices. Many farmers are rebuildng and maintaining the soil as well as establishing and improving pastures on their farms with ACP assistance.

Livestock water dams for better distribution of water are being built daily under this program. Terraces on cropland to prevent soil erosion and conserve water in the soil are also a vital part of the ACP program.

Since 1936, the Government has been helping and encouraging farmers to carry out good conservation practices and it has paid off by increased production on these farms, whose operators have participated in the Agricultural Conservation Program.

Last November, the ACS reports, farmers began filing requests with the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee for this years program. However, late requests are being accepted and are considered each Friday by the County Committee. Any farmer, who wishes to file a late request to carry out one or more ACP practice, may do so by coming to the ASC County ofifce in Cameron.

People Urged To Provide For Future Retirement

With one Aamerican in 12 now 65 years old or over, and with the proportion of the aged to the total population continuing to grow, it is becoming increasingly important for people to begin planning early in life to provide for an adequate retirement income, according to a statement released today by James B. Marley, manager of the Social Security office in Austin.

While old-age insurance benefits under social security will for most people form a very substantial base for retirement, they are not intended to provide a full retirement income. For that reason, it is important that everyone, particularly a person with family responsibilities, sets up an over-all retirement plan. To his estimated old-age insurance, a person would add other expected monthly income at retirement such as company pensions and annuities. If these do not supply enough for an adequate retirement, an individual should endeavor through his own initiative to round out his program by other forms of systematics personal savings. Important, too, in this total picture, is home ownership since a person who has a home fully paid for at retirement will need substantially less in retirement income than his neighbor who has to pay monthly rent.

"From our contacts with people, we see daily the results of such careful planning or the lack of it," said Marley. "For that reason," he concluded," "We are always glad to receive inquiries from people who want to learn what old-age and survivors insurance will do for them in their over-all financial planning for the future."

Candidates May Not Place Name On Two Primary Ballots

With the Democratic Primary coming up in July, Max McClaren, Chairman of the Executive Committee released the following item.

"The Texas Election Code provides that a candidate's name may appear on the General Election ballot as the nominee of two or more political parties for the same office. This procedure was followed by Texas Republicans in 1952, when certain Democratic nominees were "cross-filed" on the Republican Ticket by action of the Republican State Convention.

The Texas statutes specifically prohibit the "participation" of any person in more than one party primary or convention in the same day.

In 1954, under Texas law both the Democratic and the Republican parties will hold primary elections on the same day. The State Democratic Executive Committee in April 24 session at Dallas called attention to the fact that no person can legally participate in both of the Democratic and the Republican primaries by appearing on both tickets as a candidate.

No person who has applied for a place on the Republican primary election ballot will be accepted as a candidate on the Democratic primary election ballot nor may legally have his name to appear on the Democratic primary election ballot.

The officers of the State Democratic and county and district committees of the Democratic Party of Texas and the primary committees thereof are directed to prepare the official ballots for the Democratic Party primary election in accordance with this resolution.

Miss Charlotte Collins and Bob Peacock, both students at Southwestern University, Georgetown, visited in Cameron over the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Inez Collins and other friends.

Ten Texas Doctors Subject To Draft

A look and a ride and a peek at the price tag will be all you'll need to know what's back of this best-selling success.

There's styling in Buick that's the greatest beauty advance in years—the very look of tomorrow—and with the spectacular panoramic windshield that's part and parcel of this dream-car look.

There's performance in Buick as never before—with record-high V8 power, with the sensationally smooth whip of Twin-Turbine Dynaflow,* with the buoyant ride of all-coil-springing, with a new precision of control and handling.

And there's value in Buick that's hard to match—with prices starting near the "low-price three"—prices that buy more Buick beauty and power and thrill and sheer automobile than smart money ever bought before.

How about you?

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

The "Write" Prescription

Noticed three half-finished letters lying on the counter down at Jones' Drug Store last week. "Writing three at once, Doc?" I asked.

"No," Doc said, "you are—you and the rest of the town. Those are for the boys from our town who are at the National Guard encampment.

"Everyone who comes in adds a line or two, and when a couple of pages are filled, I mail them. That way the boys hear from folks who might not write otherwise. They sure do enjoy it."

From where I sit, little things can add up pretty big. A few short notes make a letter. Boys from our little town help build up a strong National Guard to protect our freedom. Even freedom is made up of a lot of things—living where we like, voting the way we think is right, choosing between coffee, tea, or beer at dinner. And anything that adds up to freedom gets my stamp of approval.

Janette Fuchs, LaVelle Fischer, Bernice Fischer Receive Firsts

With a professional air of confindence and poise 4-H girls from nine to 16 modeled their dresses at the annual Dress Revue in the Simon-George Memorial Hall on Saturday, May 8.

Top winners presented purple ribbons for their age groups were Janette Fuch, 11 years old, from Buckholts, La Velle Fischer, 12 years old, from Buckholts and Bernice Fischer, 16 years old and also of Buckholts.

Janette, who has won top honors for three consecutive years entered a skirt in this years revue. LaVelle, winner in the 12 and 13 year olds class, won her ribbon with a school dress and her sister Bernice, who placed first in the 14 year olds and over, won first with her Dress Up dress entry.

The garments, which Mrs. Alice Hughes, County Agent, proclaimed very well made and shown with poise and forethought were judged on construction, appearance, poise and the record of the girls in their community and 4-H work.

Acting as judges were Miss Patsy Skeen, Home Economics teacher of Cameron, Mrs. Forrest Smith, Home Demonstration member from Connelly, with Mrs. Jimmie Asher acting as narrator throughout the evening and introducing the contestants.

Mrs. Hughes opened the revue with a welcoming address to the 100 or more spectators present, and at the conclusion of the program Judge Charles Smith presented ribbons after the judges decisions were announced.

The various events and the ribbons presented in each were: Aprons — Virgie Klein, age 9, of Burlington, a red ribbon; Carrie Lindsey of Maysfield, age 9, a red ribbon; Judy Wall, age 9 of Buckholts, a blue ribbon; and Judy Krause, age 9 of Burlington, a blue ribbon.

Two girls from the Rockdale Club represented their chapter with several vocal selections. Mrs. Hughes explained that their club was too young for them to have had time to complete garments for the revue.

In the womens tailored short coats and suits division, which followed the girls revue, Mrs. Forrest Smith with her short coat was awarded the purple ribbon.

Blue ribbons were awarded to Mrs. Robert Jungman of Buckholts who entered a short coat, to Mrs. Dudley of the Bethlehem club for her short coat; to Mrs. Arthur Inge of Buckholts for her short coat; to Mrs W. NEWEST HEAVYWEIGHT SLUGGER

Shown publicly for the first time at the Chrysler Delaware Tank Plant, here is the long-secret T-43, newest, heaviest, and most powerfully armed of Uncle Sam's land battleships. The armored giant was designed by engineers of Army Ordnance and Chrysler Corporation and has been in production at the Delaware plant for the past three years, although many of its details are still classified. For its Sunday punch, the T-43 mounts a 120mm cannon, plus .50 caliber and .30 caliber machine guns. Hull and turret are each cast from a single piece, with contours sloped to deflect enemy fire. The biggest tank ever put into production by the United States, the T-43 is claimed to be more than a match for any tank that could be put in the field against it.

Immunization, Telebinocular And Audimeter Checks Made

Physical Health Constitute Mental Health and Capacity of Students

Todays teachers are responsible for many improvements in todays youngsters. High on their list of accomplishments is the unusually good health record of most of the students.

Not content with forming good backgrounds in History, Reading Arithmetic our school teachers, through annual immunization programs, telebinocular and audiometer checks are founding sound health practices among the young in our community.

In realizing that a students mental capacity can be governed by his physical health, school authorities have installed school nurses, who are assisted in numerous ways by the County Health Unit.

The annual immunization program for the Milam County Schools started in September of 1953 and was completed in March of this year. During this time a total of 35 schools was immunized, thereby insuring tht children against serious communicable diseases.

Mrs. Cynthia Saage, R.N., school nurse of Milam County advised that there were four trips made to each of these 35 schools, which gives some idea of the time consumed since 140 trips were made for immunization purposes.

One of the new innovations provided to make certain that each childs vision is adequate is the Telebinocular tests. If the results of this test are not satisfactory the childs parents are advised that his eyes need attention. This program, which includes each child once every two years, was conducted in the following towns in Milam County during this year: Sharp, Marlwo, Maysfield, Thorndale, Ben Arnold, Marak, Davilla, Watts Switch and San Gabriel. This over-all program conducted this year was a recheck of students listed with deficient vision last year and a pick-up of new students.

After statistical reports proved that improved vision meant improved school work, school officials further realized that each childs needs full use of all his faculties to put forth his best efforts.

This yaer, the newest program, an Audiometer check was instigated. Sweep checks to test the hearing of the sutdents were made in the following schools: Davilla, Ben Arnold, San Gabriel, Marlow, Watts Switch, Marak, Ad Hall, Ada Henderson school in Cameron and Buckholts.

Individual audiograms were made on students failing to pass the sweep checks. This was followed up by a teacher, parent, nurse conference to insure the proper disposition of the cases.

Other than the above mentioned programs much stress was given by the County Health Unit on mental health. This being accomplished through programs presented to groups interested in various phases of health.

The use of motion pictures and special literature has been proven to be the most effective ways to relate good health practices since there in a steadily increasing demand for more programs of this type.

The month of May has been scheduled to be used for the purpose of presenting an especially varied number of these visual programs to groups and clubs throughout the entire county.

Boy Scout Drive Collects $500; More Needed

Fund raising efforts by the Heart O' Texas Boy Scout Building Campaign is rapidly gaining momentum throughout the entire Council Area this week, it was announced by Vice Chairmen, Afton Schulz and Bassett Watson.

In outlining plans for the Campaign, Watson and Schulz emphasized that fund raising efforts in the entire Council Area were expected to be completed by the end of this week. Many communities are just starting their campaigns; however, most are planning one or two day whirlwind efforts.

The goal of the Boy Scout Building Campaign is $200,000 to provide minimum basic camping facilities for Camp Tahuaya located near Belton, and a new Explorer camp site now being acquired. Of the $200,000 to be raised, $135,000 will be spent on Camp Tahuaya and $35,00 on the new Explorer camp site.

Council President, Roy Smith, of Killeen, pointed out that new facilities are vitally essential to provide for the enormous increase in Scouting activities within the past 4 years. Scout enrollment within the past 4 years has increase 114 percent. Total enrollment now stands at 7,559. It is anticipated that by 1956 Heart O' Texas Council will have 10,000 Scouts and Scouters. Smith further emphasized that building plans call for only those facilities which will provide adequate health and sanitary protection as well as protection from inclement weather. He also pointed out that camping activities are carried on a year round basis and not just through the summer months. Community Chairmen who are assisting in the drive includes Rev. John C. Solomon, pastor of First Presbyterian Church here. Preliminary Campaign reports indicate that $68,529.00 has been raised to date.

The Cameron leaders have planned several local campaigns and are getting in full swing this week, Rev. Solomon reported, with $500 donated and pledged up to this time. However, much more is hoped to be collected before the campaign closes about the middle of next week.

Gene Blake is chairman of the special gifts committee, and others assisting in the drive are Dana Kestenbaum, Dean White, Jack Slaughter, Calvin Markham, Allen Dodson, V. J. Hannon, Louis McKee, Richard Moseley, E. O. Schiller, Jr., and Bill McIntosh.

T. C. Turnham of Long Beach California is visiting in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Pierce for several days. Mr. Turnham arrived in time to be with his mother on Mother's Day. Red Cross Chapters Go In Action

Fifty Red Cross chapters have swung into full-scale disaster relief and rehabilitation operations following the Midwest Tornadoes of May 1954 which this month swept across four states and battered 34 counties.

Reports indicate that the twisters left in their wake two dead and 84 injured, and affected 412 families throughout Afkansas, Oklahoma, Texas, and Iowa.

In Texas, where 20 persons were injured and 156 families were affected by the torradoes throughout 21 counties, six staff members have been dispatched. One Red Cross staff member has gone to Arkansas where 27 families in three counties suffered tornado loss; and three staff members to Iowa where tornado damage occurred in Linn County.

Throughout this coming week, Red Cross disaster workers in these widely scattered, stricken areas will be busy assisting chapters, meeting both emergency needs of victims and planning the extensive rehabilitation work required.

This double-breasted navy, pinstripe, all-wool worsted flannel suit is worn with a semi-starched medium spread white cotton broadcloth shirt. Tornadoes And Causes Discussed By Joe Matula At Rotary Meeting Wednesday

Joe Matula, local Post Office employee, who studies meterology as a hobby was guest speaker at the Rotary Club meeting Tuesday noon in the Milam Coffee Shop.

During a short business session Floyd Carpenter of the Southland Oil Company was elected into the club, bringing the membership up to 35.

Matula was introduced by Albert Collins, program chairman for the day. The subject of his address was Tornados and their causes.

He pointed out that May is the worst month for tornados in this area and that the main cause of the active tornado is a low pressure area centered to the west or north-west of the affected area.

In relating the facts governing these dread winds he brought out that at that particular time there is an influx of two drastically different type air into the region, the warm, moist air from the gulf and the cool dry air from the north. The currents meet with the cool air forcing the warm air up. When this air reaches a certain height it causes rain, further on up at freezing temperatures we have hail. Matula said that it is not known at what height tornados or hurricanes originate.

These winds can be traced and charted by the weather bureau with air soundings made with balloons and a general knowledge of location can be determined although not pin-pointed.

He reminded that all those who are caught at home and receive any advance warning of the approach of a tornado should go to the northeast part of their home and flatten themselves on the flood, preferably under some object such as a bed. He added that they should close the house up, leaving windows on the northeast section of the house open.

Matula has been studying various books on the weather and keeping up with all weather reports as a hobby for the past several years.

F. H. Scarborough's Bermuda Grass Showing Progress

Bermuda grass sodded in the Little River bottom in February is now making good growth. F. H. Scarborough, one mile east of Cameron, sodded 25 acres to Bermuda grass in February. A few days ago he applied 30 pounds of nitrogen per acre. Even though the water has been unusually dry for this season of the year, most of the sod chunks have made good growth. Many of the grass runners are three feet long.

Scarborough has 115 acres of bottomland to furnish grazing for his herd of registered Polled Herefords. During the winter months a large part of the place is planted in clover and oats. Eighty-five cows grazed the 115 acres during all the winter months. The summer pasture for the farm is chiefly Bermuda grass.

Many farmers in the community failed to get a good stand of Bermuda that was sodded in the early spring. The land dried out after it was plowed and the sod died.

Scarborough used the same method of sodding, but the grass lived. The difference was in the condition of the land. After several years of oats and clover, the land was in condition to take in and hold most of the water from the fall and winter rains. The land never did dry out.

Scarborough plans to put the whole farm in Bermuda grass and overseed it with clovers for winter pasture. These plants will give the land a permanent cover, protecting it from overflow damage. The soil will be kept in good condition to hold the water that falls on it.

HEART DISORDERS

When statistics show that heart trouble is the leading cause of death, and we note daily in our offices the remarkable recoveries from serious cases of heart trouble; we would like to cry from the housetops to encourage those suffering from heart ailments to at least investigate new methods.

Dr. G. E. Hall of the University of Toronto admits, after long research, that sudden death from heart disease is probably caused by reflex nerve action of certain sets of nerves.

The blood supply to the heart muscles, the heart rate, and the coordination of the heart with the rest of the body is regulated through the central nervous system. It is for this reason that interference with the transmission of nervous energy to the heart results in heart trouble. Unless an extensive portion of the heart is diseased, it will respond when the interference is removed.

The following case is a good illustration:

A lady age 68, came to our clinic in a partially paralized condition following a light stroke. Right arm partially paralized; right hand almost useless; both hands tense and drawn. Other complaints were frequent pain in left side; rectum painful at times. Heart beat very slow and pounding. Blood pressure high. A complete spinal analysis was made in our clinic which included Spinal X-Rays and Instrumental Spinal Analysis. The cause was found to be nerve interference and corrective adjustments were given. Symptoms began to vanish gradually and when last seen (2 weeks ago) the blood pressure was normal and the fingers of the right hand had relaxed. The patient is again able to carry on a normal active day.

Milano Seniors Tour Three States On School Trip

On Thursday morning, May 6 at 4 o'clock, the Senior Class of Milano, accompanied by their chaperones, Superintendent and Mrs. W. W. Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bowling, left by school bus for Lake Texoma. They arrived at 11 a.m., saw the sights there, ate lunch, rested, and then boarded the bus for a trip through southern Oklahoma.

Along the highways the fields of cromson clover and beautiful peach orchards were sights that the seniors had never viewed before.

Arriving at Durant, Oklahoma, at about 2:30 the group checked in at Hotel Bryan, showered, dressed and then saw the city. A good movie was the diversion of the evening.

The students arose about 7 a. m. Friday, had breakfast and started a long bus ride-destination, Hot Springs, Arkansas. The scenes along this drive were beautiful. Even the weather remained the Milano seniors friend-cool and cloudy, just right for travel.

The rivers and creeks were so clear and inviting, but no one had time to stop and wade. The only stops along this ride were to enjoy meals.

The highway over the mountains into Hot Springs furnished a thrilling bus ride but they were glad to arrive there about 3:30. The superintendent really knew the magic words, according to the group of seniors, for he soon found accomodations at Hotel Como. Now the students were really ready for two days of thrills and excitement.

A trip to the observation tower 1,206 feet above sea level, a visit to the largest alligator farm in the world where the occupants ages ranged from 1 year to 490 years of age, bath house row, where many thousands bathe daily in water of 128 degrees temperature (the Milano students signified that they preferred their showers a little cooler, a large Army and Navy hospital, a twenty mile ride in a speed boat on Lake Hamilton were only a few of the many things they saw and enjoyed. The high light of Saturday evening was special dinner arranged for by the chaperones at the wsank Colony House where soft music and candle light almos tlulled the Seniors to sleep. Curfew rang at 11 Saturday night for the students had to be on their way by 7 a.m. Sunday. This was accomplished.

After a full day of riding Sunday they pulled into Milano about 7:30 p.m. having completed 1,050 miles of bus riding and sight seeing, having no breakdowns or accidents, and a trip that the members of the Milano Class will long remember.

Miss Clara Thomas Hostess To History Club

A revised and compiled roll of the personnel at San Jacinto was discussed by L. W. Kemp, noted historian, at the History Club meeting in the home of Miss Clara Thomas Tuesday afternoon.

His talk was enlightening on many phases of the make-up of the men in General Sam Houston's army. Several of its number became presidents and governors after the capture of Santa Anna while several suffered the hangmans noose.

One of the interesting facts brought out by Mr. Kemp was that of all the 900 in the army only 26 were native Texans.

Much research into each mans past history has been done by Mr. Kemp for an active knowledge of the lives of these men.

He was introduced by Mrs. Graham Gillis and 15 members and one guest, Mrs. Razor, sister of Mrs. Jim Watson and Mrs. Gaither were present.

During the short business session one new member, Mrs. George Childress was elected into the club.

Serving after the meeting was conducted by Mrs. H. F. Smith, Miss Katherin Flinn, Mrs. Hilliard Thomas and the hostess. Several arrangements of pansies and white gladiola were placed at vantage points in the rooms.

All of the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Sim Fuller of Cameron came home for Mothers Day weekend.

Aileen and Billie Lou, who are employeed by insurance companys in Dallas as stenographers, and Mrs. Wright Price, Jr., her husband and children of Tahoka, Texas were all present.

During the weekend Mr. and Mrs. Price also visited with his parents in Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. Wright Price, Sr.

PMA Cotton Measuring Begins Monday

Employees at the Production Marketing Association office in Cameron have a ready made schedule for the next few weeks. They will visit all of the 1,800 farms in the county to measure the amount of cotton acreage being farmed.

All in all, authorities at the office reported, there will be approximately 65,000 acres to be measured. They hope to complete the project by July.

If all of this land is farmed and there is a normal average yield, the total county yield should exceed the 20,000 while mark. Most of the acreage has already been planted, although there were some sections that were too dry for planting until the recent rains.

The first picking should start rather early in the fall and weather permitting, the staple will probably not show the effects of the drought earlier in the year.

The released acreage is still being re-allocated and the local PMA office will continue to accept releases of acreage for the next few days. All of those not planning to farm their complete allotment have been urged to contact this office immediately.

An argument over 25 cents led to George Green and Tommy Lee Jones, both negros of Cameron, being admitted to Newtons Hospital for severe knife wounds on Thursday night.

The argument started when one of the boys claimed the other owed him a quarter. Tempers flared, knives came into action and George was said to have serious wounds while those sustained by Tommy were reported not serious.
